meats and monuments of that great city; th provements of Rome; the reestablishment c factories of Lyons. Fifty millions spent on r< improving the Crown residences; sixty millio furniture placed in the palaces of France and Turin, at Rome; sixty millions' worth of Crow all of it the money of Napoleon; even the only misssing one of the old diamonds of tl France, purchased from Berlin Jews with v pledged for three millions; the Napoleon Mus at more than 400 millions.

These are monuments to confound calumi will relate that all this was accomplished in continuous wars, without raising a loan, ai public debt actually decreasing day by day.

October 21st. After all said and done, Mme a woman of great talent, very distinguished, < intelligence: she has won her place. It might if, instead of carping at me, she had taken would have been useful to me.

SOth. I must admit that I was spoiled; I orders; from my birth power was mine, I jected a master or a law.

November 6th. I was always searching for a